

The Wesley City Council met in special session on October 16, 2017 at City Hall. Mayor pro-tem Sue Gowlitzer called the 6:30 pm meeting to order with council members Neuroth, Merlin, Riggert and Bills answering roll call. Mayor Duane Larson was absent. Others present David Reding, Lance Ludwig and Stephanie Ricke.

The council discussed what actions we can take to better our community on hazards that may happen and have happened. Our first priority will be to designate the community center as a storm shelter and get signs up for residents and passersby.

A concern was brought to the attention of the city council that a resident's house was being built too close to the road, this was measured and corrected that in fact the house is within the limits.

The meeting adjourned at 7:20 PM. A motion was made by Bills and seconded by Neuroth. All ayes. The next meeting is scheduled for November 6th.
